Our Ethos

ENVIRONMENT

I love the countryside and it is vital we look after our environment. So it is just natural that Chester and Cooke is a sustainable company. I evaluate every part of my business, from packaging to our lighting, the suppliers we use and the materials I source. This runs through to the design and production of our products. This is a constant consideration and thought process how I can improve

GREAT CUSTOMER SERVICE

I will only provide Great Customer Service; this is what I would expect and therefore that is what I want to deliver. I am very proud of all the wonderful reviews that I have received which shows I am achieving my goal.

OUTSTANDING QUALITY PRODUCTS

I aim to design products that solve a problem yet look stunning and give you that wow feeling. Most of our products can be personalised for that extra special touch. Whether for a special gift or an item for your home or pet, our products create feeling of joy and love and this is my passion.

WHY CHOOSE US?

When you Purchase from Chester & Cooke, you know you are purchasing from a small UK business. Our products are designed by me and made in our workshop in Cambridgeshire, with Love and Care. Every order on our website over £20 plants a tree. And ever order gets put into our customer of the month draw, as a little thank you to our customers. As we appreciate you all so much. - Thank you for your interest in my passion & my Business. -

Liz
